

POOR PEOPLE'S ECONOMIC HUMAN RIGHTS CAMPAIGN

LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

JULY 15th to July 23rd, 2005

coordinated by the University of the Poor

Evening Events Schedule

Friday, July 15 (8:30pm - ?) – Mark Webber's 25th Birthday Party at Silk City Lounge in Philadelphia

Location: Get driving directions to Silk City at Registration table

Saturday, July 16 (8:00-10:00pm) – "State of Fear": A Documentary about the Truth Commission in Peru produced by Skylight Pictures with a discussion about the video with the filmmakers. Other videos TBA.

Location: Park Science 243

Sunday, July 17 (8:00-10:00pm) – Arts and Culture Night: Performances by GeoClan, Artists for a Better American and other artists and musicians

Location: Thomas Great Hall

Monday, July 18 (8:00-10:00pm) – Capers: A One-Woman Play on Gentrification and Housing – written and performed by Anu Yadav with after performance discussion with leaders of Friends and Residents of Arthur Capper & Carrollsburg

Location: Thomas Great Hall

Tuesday, July 19 (8:00-10:00pm) – Battle of Images – Premiere Showing of 2004 RNC Video featuring the PPEHRC with discussion with NYC filmmakers, Gabe Rhodes and Keefe

Location: Park Science 243

Wednesday, July 20 (7:30-9:00pm) - Just Health Care Training – A solution to America's health care crisis. Get training on an in-depth, highly researched solution to our current privatized system. By taking profit out of health care, Just Health Care would cover every resident of the US. Facilitated by Ethel Long-Scott and Michael Polson of WEAP.

Location: Park Science 243

Thursday, July 21 (8:00-10:00pm) – Battle of Images – Arts, Culture and Videos

Location: Park Science 243

Friday, July 22 (8:00-10:00pm) – Talent Show – Sign up to perform your talent to the entire leadership school. Also workshop tracks will share highlights from the week, including a Media Track video on the Leadership School filmed and edited at the school itself!

Location: Park Science 243